MOBILE PHONES

Responsible and secure use of mobile phones by adults and young people is encouraged by Showjumping Ireland and in general the following should apply when communicating with underage athletes.

- Anyone working with our young athletes should never place themselves in a compromising position by texting or communicating via social media sites with underage athletes.
- All such communications regarding Showjumping Ireland activities should be sent via the parents or guardians of the underage athlete, unless otherwise agreed with the parents/guardians, in writing
- As an adult - Do not communicate individually by text/email sites with underage athletes
- As an adult - Do not engage in communications with underage athletes via social network sites

AS A YOUNG PERSON REMEMBER:

- If you receive an offensive photo, email or message, do not reply, save it, make a note of times and dates and tell a parent or Children's Officer/Designated Safeguarding Children Officer within Showjumping Ireland
- Change your phone number in cases of bullying or harassment
- Be careful about who you give your phone number to and don't respond to unfamiliar numbers
- Don't use the phone in certain locations; inappropriate use of your camera phone may cause upset or offence to another person, e.g. in changing rooms
- Treat your phone as you would any other valuable item so that you guard against theft
